

Frostbyte

The Silicon Valley Snowman

THE FOMO LOUNGE

Frostbyte the Snowman was an early-stage VC, 'Midst app store wars and self-driving cars, he liked his B2B.

Frostbyte the Snowman heard 'bout unicorns all day, 'Bout AirBNB and the IoT, and bubbles that would pay.

There must have been some “swipe right”
in that enterprise deal he found,
For when he saw their funding pitch
he decided to lead their round.

Oh, Frostbyte the Snowman
led the Series A, then B;
and the founders say he helped the M&A,
Well before the Series C.

Sand Hill

Pivots and cash-flow, pivots and cash-flow:
Things that Frostbyte knows.
Zero-zero-one-one, zero-zero-one-one Over Sand Hill he goes!

Have your selfie a very merry holiday season
